

Please don't weaken our no call list. The big banks are exactly the people we don't want to have calling our homes in the first place. the banks teach telemarketers to not take no for an answer. Please help protect our individual right to privacy.